

Member Access to Credit Union Records

Documents relating to the finance and management of the credit union are available to members for review in our office upon request by calling 903-561-2603.

These documents are not to be copied, nor are they allowed to be removed from the premises of the credit union.